Snowmass Village, Colorado (June 8, 2017) — Anderson Ranch Arts Center, a premier art making destination and catalyst for critical dialogue in the contemporary art world, announces the line-up for its six-week Featured Artists & Conversations Series, including acclaimed artists Doug Aitken,

Diana Al-Hadid, Walead Beshty, Huma Bhabha, Wangechi Mutu and William J. O'Brien. The series will also feature prominent art collectors, Jan and Ronnie Greenberg, writer Sarah Thornton, gallerist Leila Heller, and Amy Cappellazzo, Chairman, Fine Art Division, Sotheby's.

The annual series, which features some of the most influential artists of our time, explores the work of world-renowned artists and curators, and hosts conversations with prominent critics and collectors, in both lecture and Q&A formats. Past artist participants have included Marina Abramović (2013), Holland Cotter (2014), Theaster Gates (2014), Rashid Johnson (2012), Anne Pasternak (2014), Jerry Saltz (2016), Laurie Simmons (2011), Frank Stella (2015), Mickalene Thomas (2010), Hank Willis Thomas (2015), Bill Viola (2013), Kara Walker (2012), and Carrie Mae Weems (2016). Taking place on select dates throughout Aspen's summer season, the popular series draws over 1,500 top U.S. collectors and patrons, art enthusiasts and the public as well as Anderson Ranch students and faculty.

Nancy Wilhelms, Executive Director of Anderson Ranch, notes, "Our Featured Artists & Conversations Series is a highly-anticipated part of Aspen's summer arts and cultural season. We bring exciting artists, critics and collectors to Anderson Ranch to share ideas with our audiences and the art world at large. Our commitment to stimulating creative dialogue focused on contemporary art and art making is deeply rooted in our heritage. This incredible line-up continues this legacy, during an action-packed summer season, as we move into our 51st year."

About Anderson Ranch Arts Center

Founded in 1966, Anderson Ranch Arts Center is a premier destination in America for art making and critical dialogue, bringing together aspiring and internationally renowned artists to discuss and further their work in a stimulating environment. Nestled in the Rocky Mountains of Aspen/Snowmass, Colorado, the Ranch hosts extensive workshops for every day, emerging and established artists in eight disciplines, including Photography & New Media, Ceramics, Painting & Drawing, Furniture Design & Woodworking, Sculpture, Woodturning, Printmaking and Digital Fabrication.

In addition to the Summer Series: Featured Artists & Conversations, the Ranch also hosts engaging events throughout the year including: the Recognition Dinner (Thursday, July 20, 2017) honoring the National Artist

Award, Service to the Arts Award and Extraordinary Leadership Award recipients; the Annual Art Auction & Community Picnic (Saturday, August 5, 2017), a thirty-seven-year-old tradition which features works of local, national and international artists; and the Artists-in-Residence Program, fostering artistic growth for emerging and established visual artists. In 2016 Anderson Ranch celebrated its 50th anniversary, furthering its mission to enrich lives with art, inspiration and community.
